I have the honor to submit herewith a petition dated 20th January 1908 received from Visalamma reporting the death of her husband Dharmaraja and his brother Sampangiraja Polligars of Anegondi.

The brothers were living together as a joint family and the elder brother Dharmaraja the karnavardar was in receipt of a monthly stipend of Rs 16-3-1.

Dharmaraja has no issue. He has left behind him only his widow Visalamma the petitioner. His brother Sampangiraja has left behind him a minor son aged years by name Narainraja. These are the only claimants to the stipend of Dharmaraja Dharmaraja as per Bangalore District Deputy Commissioners docket No R 2982 dated 16th March 1908 which is herewith forwarded in original.

3. Janapalaraja uncle of the deceased Dharmaraja in his petition dated 31st January 1908 prays for the transfer of the stipend to the minor's name and that he should be appointed as guardian during his minority. This latter portion of his prayer does not appeal to me, owing to the very tender age of the boy it is essential that he should not be deprived of such home influence as he has been accustomed to. This Janapalaraja has been living away somewhere in the Anantapore District and is a total stranger to this Child. It may be time enough when the boy grows older and his education has to be thought of to appoint a male guardian. For the present I should think that Pivalamma would prove to be the better guardian of the minor.

4. I accordingly recommend that the Stipend of the deceased Dharmaraja may be transferred to the name of his brother's minor son Narainraju and Visalamma be appointed as guardian during his minority.

5. I also submit a petition from one akkinndevamma Sister of the deceased annawandan Dharmaraju stating that she was in receipt of a monthly allowance of Rs 4/- out of his pension and in support she has produced a stamped but unregistered agreement dated 30th May 1905 purporting to be signed by both Dharmaraju and his brothers Sampangi-raju. This arrangement, if true at all, seems to have been an internal one between the parties themselves and this Office had no knowledge of it up to this time. Granting that this arrangement between the parties did really exist, it need not now stand in the way of the transfer of the Stipend to the minor. I am still pursuing an enquiry into this fact and when the evidence is complete further action, if necessary, may be taken.

But in the meantime I recommend that the stipend of the deceased Chamaraja may be transferred to his brother's minor son Narasimaraja and that the deceased's widow Vijalamma may be appointed guardian to the minor during his minority.
